Special Services Team,

The Gifted and Talented Department has identified the students listed below as qualifying to be further evaluated for the GT program based on their FastBridge data or a parent/teacher/student referral. Please look through the names below and notify the GT team of any student(s) that have accommodations.

Identified Students:

The CogAT test will be used to determine if any of these students are eligible for GT services. The CogAT test will take place on (date/time). The test will be given in (1/3) sessions. Each session will be (time). We want to make sure these students have all required accommodations available for this assessment.
